The minor in consumer affairs consists of a minimum of 23 credit hours. The minor is designed to enable students to understand the consumer/market relationship, with special emphasis on identification and solution of consumer programs. Students must take Family Resource Management 243, 340, and 443, as well as two other graded courses in family resource management.

After the academic program coordinator in the College of Education and Human Ecology has approved your Minor Program Form, you should file the form with your college or school counselor. For further information about the minor program, contact the college.
