The minor in Latino/a Studies explores the social, cultural and historical realities facing Latinos/as residing in the United States. The minor pays attention to pan-Latino/a identity formations and the intersections of race, class, gender, and sexuality.

The minor in Latino/a Studies requires 25 credit hours and draws upon course work in several departments and colleges. The minor is composed of 10 credit hours of core course requirements and 15 hours of elective course work. A number of the courses listed below have prerequisites, which must be taken, and enrollment in some courses may be limited because of demand or available space. Also, students must have the coordinator's approval before taking topical courses where the content changes from quarter to quarter. This approval ensures that the content for a particular quarter is appropriate for the minor. Minor course work may overlap with the GEC where appropriate. No more than 10 credit hours of course work at the 200 level may be counted toward the minor.

After the coordinating advisor has approved your Minor Program Form, you should file the form with your college or school counselor. For further information about the minor program contact: aldama.1@osu.edu
