The minor in textiles and clothing offered by the Department of Consumer Sciences is designed to provide students with an understanding of the acquisition and use of clothing and household textiles in relation to the physical, aesthetic, social, and psychological needs of the individual. The minor consists of a minimum of 22 credit hours of course work in the department, including a 16 hour core. Selection of textiles and clothing courses may be related to fashion and interiors merchandising, or product development and evaluation. All course prerequisites must be met. After the academic program coordinator in the College of Education and Human Ecology has approved your Minor Program Form, you should file the form with your college or school counselor. For further information about the minor program, contact the college.
