Department: Mathematics
Position: Hans J. Zassenhaus and Arnold Ross Visiting Assistant Professorships
Rank: Visiting Assistant Professor

Description:
The Department of Mathematics in the College of Arts and Sciences at The Ohio State University is accepting applications for Hans J. Zassenhaus and Arnold Ross Visiting Assistant Professorships. Pending approval, these positions would be available effective Autumn Semester 2016. These term positions are renewable annually for up to a total of three years. The emphasis of Zassenhaus Assistant Professorships is teaching and research, while Ross Assistant Professorships focus primarily on teaching. While teaching loads are subject to change, the current teaching load for a Zassenhaus Assistant Professor is 2-1 (two courses in the autumn and one in the spring semester). A Ross Assistant Professor will be expected to teach one course and two recitations (or equivalent assignment) each semester.

Qualifications:
All candidates are expected to have a Ph.D. in mathematics and to present evidence of excellence in teaching and research. Further information on the department can be found at http://www.math.ohio-state.edu. Appointment is contingent on the university’s verification of credentials and other information required by law and/or university policies, including but not limited to a criminal background check.

About Columbus:
The Ohio State University campus is located in Columbus, the capital city of Ohio. Columbus is the center of a rapidly growing and diverse metropolitan area with a population of over 1.5 million. The area offers a wide range of affordable housing, many cultural and recreational opportunities, excellent schools, and a strong economy based on government as well as service, transportation and technology industries (see http://liveworkplaycolumbus.com). Columbus has consistently been rated as one of the Top U.S. cities for quality of life. Additional information about the Columbus area is available at http://www.columbus.org.

Application Instructions:
All candidates should apply online at http://www.mathjobs.org. If you cannot apply online, please contact facultysearch@math.ohio-state.edu or write to: Hiring Committee, Department of Mathematics, The Ohio State University, 231 W. 18th Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210. Applications will be considered on a continuing basis, but the annual review process begins November 16, 2015.

The Ohio State University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, or protected veteran status. Ohio State is an NSF Advance Institution. Flexible work options available.