The Ronald and Deborah Ratner Distinguished Teaching Awards
Revised: April 20, 2016

2016 Application Form

Name of Faculty Member:

E-mail address:

Rank (Associate or Full Professor):

Department/School within the Division of Arts and Humanities:

Selection Criteria: To be considered for a Ratner Award, applicants must prepare a Teaching Portfolio consisting of the following:

1. Statement of teaching philosophy and approach to teaching (500-750 words)
2. Statement of future goals: how do you see yourself evolving as a teacher over the next five-ten years? (500-750 words)
3. Three Sample Syllabi
4. Letter of Recommendation from Department Chair or School Director
5. Three Peer Observations of Teaching from the past 5 years (may be from faculty members within or outside the department)
6. Cumulative SEIs from the past 5 years
7. Evidence of Student Impact (no more than 750 words; may include summaries of student discursive evaluations, summaries of student achievements, contributions to experiential learning such as study abroad; internships; service learning; and independent studies; and other such documentation)
8. Brief description of plans for $10,000 teaching enhancement grant (how funds would be used to directly benefit students and enhance teaching) (250-500 words)

Please send portfolio and cover sheet by Friday, September 23, 2016 as a single PDF to: ascfacultyaffairs@osu.edu
If preferred, a hard copy of all materials may be delivered to:

Susan S. Williams
Vice Dean
College of Art and Sciences
186 University Hall
230 N Oval Mall, Columbus, OH 43210
614-292-9789 Office / 614-292-8666 Fax