Minor in Professional Writing

The Department of English’s professional writing minor is designed to give students the opportunity both to develop the cognitive knowledge, practical skill, and hands-on experience needed to write well in the 21st-century workplace and to obtain a credential certifying that knowledge, skill, and experience to potential employers.

The minor requires 12-15 credit hours and builds on the foundation provided by 2367, the second-level writing course. Two electives from a portfolio of courses offered by departments throughout the university provide instruction in specific areas of professional writing. The required core course, English 4150, examines the nature of writing in various settings and prepares students for their capstone experience in English 4189. As part of this latter course, students are engaged in a semester-long hands-on and meaningful writing internship at a Columbus area business, nonprofit, government agency, or university workplace.
