The Spanish Honors minor consists of a minimum of 15 credit hours in the study of Iberian and Latin American Literatures, Cultures, and Hispanic Linguistics. The language of instruction in all Spanish classes leading to the minor will be in Spanish. All Honors students, regardless of their major or college of enrollment, are required to follow the Honors Spanish program. Honors students must take 3450H and fulfill additional requirements. Students choosing to minor in Spanish are encouraged to take advantage of study abroad opportunities offered in cooperation with The Office of International Affairs (OIA). After a Faculty Advisor in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese has approved the Honors minor, you should file the form with your college or school counselor. ASC Honors students will complete this step as part of the Honors Contract. For further information about the minor program, contact the Department of Spanish and Portuguese.

Spanish Major/Minor Entrance exam
The Spanish Listening and Reading Proficiency Exam (SLRPE) is administered in multiple sessions per term. Passing scores on both portions of the SLRPE is a prerequisite to entry into all undergraduate Spanish courses at the 3000-level and above. Students are eligible to register for the SLRPE as early as the 5th week of enrollment in 2200H or 2202.01, or through pre-requisite examination.

Required courses (9 credit hours)
Spanish 3401 & 3403 (Honors sections of these courses optional), 3450H (Honors section required)
