GENERAL UPDATES

Advertise a course, program, and event with a video on the Arts and Sciences Facebook page. This is a new and creative opportunity to promote courses, programs, and events to undergraduates with a 1-2 minute video. The Arts and Sciences Facebook has over 2,300 fans that you can speak to—for more information on how to advertise your course, please contact piazza.31@osu.edu.

NEWS

• Award-winning Faculty/Staff/Students

The Lantern received multiple awards at the Ohio Newspaper Association Annual Convention on February 10. The Ohio Collegiate Newspaper and Website Competition included 16 newspapers that submitted entries. The Lantern received a total of eight awards:

  o General Excellence Award (Best Collegiate Newspaper in Ohio)
  o First Place – News Coverage
  o First Place – Design
  o First Place – Photojournalism
  o First Place – Headline Writing
  o First Place – Website
  o Second Place – Editorial Writing
  o Third Place – Sports Coverage

Roman Holowinsky, assistant professor, mathematics, received a 2011 Sloan Fellowship. Holowinsky is one of 118 researchers nationwide, and the only one from Ohio State, selected to receive this honor. The two-year, $50,000 fellowship, given by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, stimulates fundamental research by the country's most promising early-career scientists.

Arts and Sciences Scholars Selected as Huber Faculty Fellows

Charles Emery, professor, psychology, Scott McGraw, professor, anthropology, and James Peck, professor, economics, have been selected as Joan N. Huber Faculty Fellows for 2011 in recognition of their first-rate scholarship. Huber Fellows are nominated by department chairs and receive an annual cash award of $5,000 a year for three years to further their research programs.

  • Emery focuses on behavioral medicine and the psychology of aging, specifically the psychological adjustment to chronic illness and psychological outcomes of physical exercise. He is director of Ohio State’s Cardiopulmonary Behavioral Medicine Program.

- McGraw is an evolutionary primatologist who combines his interest in functional anatomy and ecology to explore the evolution, morphology, and behavior of monkeys, apes, and humans. He is director of the Tai Monkey Project in western Ivory Coast.

- Peck has made important contributions to our understanding of uncertainty and asymmetric information in markets; his current research focus is the timing of transactions on markets. He is associate editor of the Journal of Economic Theory.

Alan Woods, associate professor, theatre, received the Central Ohio Theatre Critics Circle’s Roy Bowen Lifetime Achievement Award. Last year, Woods stepped down after serving as director of Ohio State’s Lawrence and Lee Theatre Research Institute since 1979.

Opportunities

- Libraries Undergraduate Research Prize: Undergraduate students enrolled in upper division (300-level and above) courses, and their instructors, are eligible to compete for the $1,000 Libraries Undergraduate Research Prize for 2011. Students must have an assigned project for a course which requires library resources, must consult with a librarian throughout the process, and submit a report by Monday, April 18.

- The Core Fulbright Scholar Program 2012-2013 competition for faculty is accepting applications for lecture and research abroad.

- Study Abroad Scholarships Available: Undergraduate students looking for scholarships to fund a study abroad program are encouraged to apply for International Affairs scholarships. March 7, 2011 is the deadline to apply for any of the five undergraduate scholarships available. The various scholarships provide funding of $500 to $2,500 for various short-term and quarter/summer long-term study abroad programs. The Office of International Affairs also offers grant and scholarship opportunities for faculty and graduate students.

- Engagement Impact Grants: Requests for proposals are now available for the Office of Outreach and Engagement’s Impact Grants. These grants (up to $80,000 over a two-year period) aim to establish and expand innovative, creative, scholarly outreach and engagement initiatives that can have a substantial impact within the university and community. Applications must be ranked internally before submission to Outreach and Engagement. Applicants should notify their divisional office of their intention to apply by March 1, and by March 8 for internal ranking within Arts and Sciences.

- Summer Research Funding Awards 2011: The Undergraduate Research Office, Office of International Affairs, University Honors & Scholars, and the College of Arts and Sciences (Natural and Mathematical Sciences) are pleased to offer a joint application for four Summer Research Funding Awards. Each award of $3,500 will support full-time research during Summer 2011. Applications due by Friday, March 18 at noon.

- The Critical Difference for Women Program, with support from the Coca-Cola Foundation, announces two grant competitions for 2011. These competitions are administered by the Department of Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies; and the Coca-Cola Critical Difference for Women Research Grants’ Committee, made up of faculty from five colleges.

The Student Technology Consultant program provides a demonstration of three non-linear video
• Upcoming Events

Wednesday, February 23: Winter 2011 Latin American Film Series: Visions from Bolivia, Un día más / One More Day. 180 Hagerty Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday, February 23: Small group discussions with experienced undergraduate researchers from Biological Sciences, Biomedical Sciences, Mathematical and Physical Sciences, Humanities, Social and Behavioral Sciences, Engineering, Pharmacy, and other areas. Space is limited, RSVP to uro@osu.edu with table talk in the subject line and indicate which discipline’s research you are interested in, 724 Math Tower, 6:30-8 p.m.

Thursday, February 24: Meet the Prof, an informal meeting and dinner with Noel Paul, assistant professor and organic lab supervisor in the Department of Chemistry. Kuhn Honors and Scholars House, Room 201, 6 p.m.

Thursday, February 24: Urban Monthly Mix Exchange: Music to wake up Listening to. RSVP to Joanna Emily Reed, uasexhibitions@gmail.com

Thursday, February 24: The Center for Life Sciences Education will host Dr. Susan Elrod, executive director of Project Kaleidoscope, on Teaching Inquiry-Based Science Labs. Participants should bring current lab exercises. Reception to follow. Room 001 Jennings Hall, 7 p.m. RSVP to Judy Ridgway at ridgway.14@osu.edu.

Friday, February 25: Inaugural Ohio State Graduate Showcase in Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality History. RSVP to Lindsey Patterson, Patterson.586@osu.edu for breakfast and/or lunch. Contact Professor J. Wu, wu.287@osu.edu, for details. 168 Dulles, 230 West 17 Ave.

Saturday, February 26: The Men’s Glee Club and Chorale, directed by Robert Ward and Thomas Hart, performs at the Worthington United Methodist Church, 600 N. High Street, at 7 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

Monday, February 28: Professional School Fair. A panel presentation at 6:30 p.m. features Ohio State admission reps from the following colleges: Dentistry, Moritz College of Law, Medicine, Optometry, Pharmacy, and Veterinary Medicine. Arts and Sciences academic advisors will be available to share information on how students can best prepare themselves for these programs. Ohio Union, Great Hall Meeting Room 3, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Tuesday, March 1: Icing on the College Cake: Thesis Options. Representatives from the Undergraduate Research Office, University Honors and Scholars, and the College of Arts and Sciences, as well as current students, will share why you should do a thesis and what is involved. 175 Mendenhall Lab, 4 - 5 p.m.

Wednesday, March 2: Where’s The Tortillas? A Look at Dietary Shifts in Migration. The Social and Behavioral Sciences Diversity Postdoctoral Fellows Lecture Series features Teresa Mares, postdoctoral fellow in anthropology, 4012 Smith Lab, 174 West 18 Avenue, 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. The event is free and open to all. For information, contact Patrice Dickerson at dickerson.144@osu.edu

Thursday, March 3, 2011 –Thursday, March 31: Domestic Matters: A Performing Installation at the OSU Urban Arts Space

Thursday March 3: Ilana Gershon, Indiana University, Bloomington, presents “And Then She Texted ‘Its Over’ Breakup Narratives and New Media,” Cartoon Room, Ohio Union, 12 p.m.-1:20 p.m.

2011 Digital Media in a Social World Conference: Make Your Own Education, April 1-2, with keynote speakers Mark Frauenfelder, and Dispatch multimedia producer, Doral Chenoweth. Workshops include: marketing yourself with digital media, digital storytelling, building personal networks, tweeting for education, and digital gaming. The conference is free and open to the public

March 8-April 27: Fleeting Dream: An Exhibition of Art by Arthur Wang. Wang focuses on the sentiments and lives of ordinary country people as a symbol of traditional culture, contrasted with the unhealthy consumerism and environmental devastation of urban China today. Faculty Club.

Friday, March 11: History of the Drug Trade and America’s Troubled Relationship with Our Southern Border, featuring Steven Hyland, graduate teaching assistant, history, room 168 Dulles Hall, 4 - 5:30 p.m. RSVP by Thursday March 10.

Friday and Saturday, April 8 - 9: Conference on: Migration, Religion and Germany. A weekend discussion dealing with important cultural issues concerning Central Europe. Mershon Center for International Security Studies.

Register for the 2011 Multiple Perspectives Conference, May 4-5. The Eleventh Annual Multiple Perspectives Conference continues to explore disability as a reflection of the environment and the human condition as seen through the lenses of art, law, social construct, and individual experience.

For a complete listing of Arts and Sciences Events, please visit the College of Arts and Sciences website.

Communications Services
College of Arts and Sciences
The Ohio State University
1010 Derby Hall
(614) 292-8686
asccomm@osu.edu

If you have information or announcements for News & Updates, please contact Katlin McNally at mcnally.53@osu.edu. News & Updates will be published every Wednesday; deadline for content is Monday, at noon.