French studies option (12 credit hours)

The basic requirements for the French minor are French 3101 and three additional courses taught in French at the 3000-level or above, at least one of which must be at the 4000-level or above (the prerequisites for 3101 are 1101, 1102, 1103, and 2101). The minor thus consists of 12 credit hours, no more than half of which may be examination (EM) and/or transfer (K) credit.

Below are some suggestions for course combinations that may interest students with particular career or personal goals. For example, the culture/film option may appeal especially to International Studies majors, whereas the literature option may be a good choice for students who plan to specialize in literary studies in graduate school. The French for the professions option allows students with an interest in business, government, or NGOs to develop a background in French society and professional practices. Future teachers will find the culture/film or language/linguistics option particularly useful to their career goals. Finally, the Francophone minor allows students to focus on the cultures and literatures of French-speaking countries outside of France.

Students interested in a minor in French are asked to contact the Department's minor advisor, Dr. Gloria Torrini-Roblin, to discuss their career and personal goals and the minor option that best suits these goals. Students should then file the Minor form with a college/school adviser.

Students minoring in French are encouraged to study abroad in one of our several French-speaking programs. Please visit the Office of international Affairs' website for detailed information on our programs. Course credits at the 3000-level or above earned in study abroad programs may be applied toward the minor. Contact Prof. Diane Birkbichler birkbichler.1@osu.edu, our Study Abroad Advisor, for more information.
