The minor in Korean consists of 25 hours of prerequisites and 20 hours of course work beyond the prerequisites. The purpose of the prerequisites is to give students a fundamental language and cultural basis upon which to build an understanding of Korea. The courses beyond the prerequisites are intended to provide substantial training in the Korean language and further cultural understanding.

Selection of courses should be made with the advice of the undergraduate director of the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures or of another member of the DEALL faculty. Note that not all of the courses that are available for the minor are offered every year so that early and careful planning is advised.

Students in this minor must have their minor program approved by the DEALL undergraduate director. Then you should file the form with your college or school counselor. For further information about the minor program, contact the department.
