The Modern Greek minor consists of 20 credit hours of course work. The remaining hours may be chosen from Modern Greek and allied courses at the 200 level or above, with at least one Modern Greek language course included. Up to five credit hours of overlap between the GEC will be permitted with the approval of the Greek and Latin coordinating advisor or your college or school advisor (in addition to Modern Greek 101 through 104).

After the Department of Greek and Latin coordinating advisor has approved your Minor Program Form, you must file the form with your college or school counselor. For further information about the minor program, contact the department.
