The minor in Persian consists of 20 credit hours with any approved combination of courses in Persian and allied areas at the 200 level or above, including at least two Persian language courses. Up to five hours of overlap between the minor and the GEC will be permitted with the approval of the faculty advisor.

After the faculty advisor in the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Cultures has approved the Minor Program Form, you should file the form with your college or school counselor. For further information about the minor program, contact the department.
