The 12-credit hour Food, Culture and Society Certificate introduces students to an interdisciplinary approach to understanding the culture, history and societal role that food plays in human life.

Required courses:

Students pick 4 of the following 5 classes to complete the certificate:

- HISTORY 2702 Food in World History
- COMPSTD 2420 American Food Cultures
- WGSST 3101 Food & Gender
- SOCIOL 4463 Food and Inequality in the United States
- ANTHROP 5624 The Anthropology of Food: Culture, Society and Eating

Certificate Portfolio: Students will demonstrate their mastery of certificate materials by organizing a certificate portfolio documenting course work. The assignments included in the portfolio will have been evaluated by course instructors. The satisfactory evaluation of these assignments will be necessary to be considered for the Food, Culture and Society Certificate.

Food, Culture and Society Certificate program guidelines

Credit hours required: Minimum of 12 credits. Certificate portfolio

Overlap with courses in a degree

- The certificate must be in a different subject than the major.
- Max 50% overlap with courses in a degree program (i.e. major, minor, other certificate, or GE)

X193 credits: Not permitted.

Grades required

- Minimum C- for a course to be listed on the certificate.
- Minimum 2.00 cumulative point-hour ratio required for the certificate.

Certificate Completion: While students can petition to use additional courses to meet the 12-hour requirement for the Food, Culture and Society Certificate, they should consult with the FCS advisor before selecting any courses that are not listed on this advising sheet.

Filing the certificate program form: The certificate program form must be filed at least by the time the graduation application is submitted to a college/school advisor.

Changing the certificate: Once the certificate program is filed in the college office, any changes must be approved by the College of Arts and Sciences Coordinating Advisor.
