The Creative Writing provides students options for in-depth study of the craft of creative writing. The minor consists of 12 credit hours; of the minimum four courses, two must be a combination of 2265, 2266, 2267 or 2268. At least 6 hours must be completed from the set of upper-division classes at the 3000-level and above. This progression of courses enhances critical reading skills and gives students the tools they need to create original fiction, poetry, and creative nonfiction. All creative writing workshops are repeatable for credit. For further information or minor program approval, please schedule an appointment with the Advisor listed above.

Note: No more than two introductory courses may be applied to the Creative Writing Minor. Students can choose 2267 and at least one genre-specific introductory course or introductory courses in two different genres (poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction). English 2267 provides a broad introduction to writing in all three genres and may help students choose their focus areas. English 2265, 2266, and 2268 are the foundational courses in each genre and serve as prerequisites for more advanced courses in those genres.
